

2019 Commitment to Justice Award Nomination Guidelines

Presented by Coast to Coast Legal Aid of South Florida

Past recipients of the Award include: Elizabeth G. Daugherty, Esq.–2011; The Honorable Ronald J. Rothschild–2012; Lisa Goldberg, Esq.–2013; Edith Schaffer Lederberg – 2014; Samuel S. Goren, Esq. – 2015, Stephen Ferrante, MSW – 2016, Steven Jaffe, Esq. – 2017 and Joshua Levenson, Esq. – 2018.

Individuals or organizations being nominated should meet the following criteria:

- Be professionally engaged in Broward County.
- Past winners cannot be nominated again for the same award.

Selection will be based on the following:

- How has the individual or organization had an impact on an issue or cause in the community which bears a relationship to the work of CCLA?
- What is the impact of the individual or organization's dedication on those they serve?
- Does the individual or organization have a reputation for professionalism and integrity in the community?

Nomination form follows on page 2:

2019 Commitment to Justice Award Nomination Form

Due by Noon on Friday, March 1, 2019

Coast to Coast Legal Aid of South Florida

This cover page and all questions should be completed in full. One reference letter may be included. If you have any questions, please contact Melisa Malone at mmalone@legalaid.org or 954.736.2470.

Nominee Name: _____

Affiliated Organization: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____

Phone: _____

Nominator Information:

Name: _____

Organization: _____

Email: _____

Phone: _____

Relationship to Nominee: _____

Please answer the following questions (complete narrative not to exceed ONE PAGE):

1. In what way has the nominee supported CCLA?
2. How has the nominee demonstrated a commitment to justice?
3. How does the nominee's work impact client groups served by CCLA?
4. How has the nominee furthered the work and impact of CCLA in serving the low income community?