What is a Broward Community ID Card?

Approved by the Board of County Commissioners of Broward County, the Broward Community ID is a document that helps residents identify themselves to law enforcement, schools, banks, health centers, city departments, and social service agencies.

What are the Card's Limitations?

- It is not a federal or state ID
- It is not a driver's license
- It cannot be used to vote or board an airplane
- Does not entitle to social welfare benefits
- Does not have impact on immigration status

Who Can Apply?

Any resident of Broward County can apply for a Community ID card. This ID is especially useful for formerly-incarcerated persons, foster youth, transgender persons, the homeless, new immigrants, refugees, or anyone who might face difficulties in obtaining a state-issued ID. Immigration status will not be asked.
